Fostoria Glass Museum

www.fostoriaglass.org

The museum was purchased in 1988, and opened in 1991. The house belonged to Anna Smith until 1942 - it has previously been used residentially and commercially. Two floors of Fostoria Glass are displayed at the handicap accessible facility.

Strand Theatre

www.strandtheatrewv.com

The Strand, built in 1920 as a Vaudeville theater, served as a venue for live plays and variety shows, and brought to life the stars of the "Silver Screen." Now owned and operated by the Strand Theatre Preservation Society, and listed on the National Register of Historic Places, this beautifully renovated 600 seat theater will boast a spacious stage, orchestra pit, and balcony. The strand Theatre will afford both young and old exposure to all forms of the arts and look into the past through the preservation of a structure that bring with it such a rich history.
